Public Notice: Heightened Scrutiny Packages for Prospective Assisted Living Waiver Providers

Post Date 1/19/2018

End Date 2/19/2018

Purpose The purpose of this posting is to provide public notice and receive comments on three assisted living setting settings being submitted to CMS for heightened scrutiny review. The settings are new providers seeking ODA-certification to furnish the Medicaid assisted living service. The state has determined there is sufficient evidence to demonstrate these settings possess the required home and community-based characteristics and do not have institutional qualities.
