

COAAA Professional Education March 14, 2018

9:00AM - 12:15PM Registration begins at 8:30AM

A Clinicians Guide to Ethical Issues in Working with Older Adults and their Families: Those working with older adults and their families can face dilemmas in which decisions are not clear-cut and may lead to unexpected consequences. Some of these dilemmas have ethical dimensions to them and professionals need to consider not only their personal values but also their professional ethical standards in making decisions.

Speaker Paula M. Taliaferro, MGS, LSW Paula works part time at the Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging as an Outreach & Education Specialist. As such, she has presented over 700 workshops in the last decade. Paula holds a Master's Degree in Gerontology from Scripps Gerontology Center at Miami University and a License in Social Work in the State of Ohio. She is a PAC Approved Trainer under Teepa Snow's Positive Approach Certification. She is developer of the "Aging In Ohio" course which is required of many professionals who work with older adults. In addition, she is one two developers of the "Fundamentals of Guardianship" course sponsored by the Ohio Supreme Court's Judicial College.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Identify the kinds of ethical dilemmas common in interacting with older adults and their families
- Describe the ethical theories as well as their strengths and weaknesses
- Compare and contrast the professional standards of various licensed professions (Social Work, Nursing, Counseling, and Long Term Care Administration)
- Identify issues for each participant to consider as he/she develops a personal framework for making ethical decisions in everyday work with older adults and their families.
