

COAAA Professional Education

April 25, 2018

9:00AM - 12:15PM Registration begins at 8:30AM

Safety in the Field: Adult Gang Education This workshop will illuminate participants about the activity currently happening with gang trends, terminology, culture, and media influences. Included in the program will be the history of gangs, the breakdown of the different types of gangs and threat groups, as well as their criminal activities. For professionals working out in the community, this program will help you better identify gang activity you may encounter and provide you with knowledge to help empower you as we tackle this growing problem in our communities.
