

COAAA Professional Education

September 26, 2017

9:00AM - 4:15PM Registration begins at 8:30AM

The Medicare Maze 2018: This workshop is designed for those who are just beginning to learn about Medicare and how they can help their consumers as they navigate the Medicare maze. The reality is that Ohio consumers and their families can find themselves navigating multiple systems including Medicare, Medicaid, and MyCare and trying to process a lot of information. This workshop is designed to clarify current issues and recent changes in Medicare, while providing participants with the tools to navigate the system

Speakers

Kendra Burford has been an Ohio Senior Health Insurance Information Program (OSHIPP) Community Liaison with the Ohio Department of Insurance since 2005. She conducts Medicare training for volunteer counselors and educational events for Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers. Her Bachelor's degree in Communication Studies was awarded by Ohio University.

Andy Haggard, MSW, LSW joined COAAA in 2001 serving initially as a PASSPORT case manager. Currently, as a member of the Community Education and Outreach Division, he plays an integral role in supporting and educating older adults and their families in the enrollment process for the Medicare Prescription Drug Program and Medicare in general. Andy holds undergraduate and master's degrees in Social Work from The Ohio State University. His background includes medical social work in a hospital setting and social services in long term care facilities.

Becky Hayward has been a Public Information Officer with OSHIPP since 2006. She conducts Medicare training seminars around the state for a network of volunteer counselors, social service professionals, and Medicare beneficiaries and their families. She oversees the OSHIPP Volunteer Advisory Board and is a volunteer ombudsman. She received her Bachelor's degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in Journalism.

John LaMotte joined COAAA as a member of the Community Education and Outreach Division in the spring of 2016 after retiring from the Social Security Administration. He had been with Social Security Administration for 30 years serving as a field representative and claims representative. He holds a Master's degree in Public Administration from The Ohio State University.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Summarize basic facts about the Medicare Program, eligibility requirements, and how the program is administered
- Identify benefit categories covered in Part A, B, C, and D of the Medicare Program
- Identify other types of health insurance programs, public and private, that work in conjunction with Medicare
- Describe any known changes in the program for 2018 and in the future
- Discuss MyCare Ohio program and how it fits with Medicare
- Recognize and outline the appeals process
- Identify when Medicare pays primary vs secondary benefits
- Identify key sites on the web to find general Medicare information
