

COAAA Professional Education

October 3, 2017

9:00AM - 12:15PM Registration begins at 8:30AM

Ethical Implications in Relationships and Boundary Setting Participants will receive an overview of the boundary section of the counselor and social worker code of ethics. Information on paperwork, confidentiality, boundary setting, rules around boundary setting and dual relationships will be discussed. Using case scenarios participants will have the opportunity to talk through important issues surrounding ethical practice.

Speaker

Jennifer Haywood, LISW, LICDC has been a clinical social worker and addiction specialist since 1996. She received her Master's in Social Work from The Ohio State University and her chemical dependency specialty through her internship at the Addiction Recovery Center at Harding Hospital in Worthington, Ohio. Since 2003, Jennifer has been adjunct teaching at The Ohio State University in the Bachelors Science Social Work (BSSW) and in the MSW programs with a specialty in diagnosis, theory, mental health and addictions practice classes. Jennifer has also taught at Columbus State Community College and at Capital University. Jennifer has been training helping professionals since 1998. Jennifer has a private practice in Worthington, Ohio where she specializes in treating addicts and alcoholics, families of addicts and alcoholics, depression, anxiety, post-partum women, women's' issues, adolescent issues (14+) and relationship struggles.

Objectives
