October 26, 2017

9:00AM– 12:15PM Registration begins at 8:30AM

From Oxycodone to Heroin: Understanding the Opiate/Opioid Crisis The opiate/opioid epidemic in Ohio has taken lives, devastated families, and upended communities. The State of Ohio, local communities, and various organizations, coalitions, and systems are engaging in a wide range of strategies to address the crisis, from implementing prevention approaches to customizing treatment options. This program will highlight factors that have contributed to the opiate/opioid crisis, target the specific risks among the aging population, learn about existing strategies for prevention and treatment, and discuss steps a professional or other concerned individual can take, from both the perspectives of prevention and treatment.

Speaker

Jim Ryan, OCPSII is an Ohio Certified Prevention Specialist II with more than 25 years of experience working in social services; alcohol, tobacco, and other drug abuse prevention; and with communities, organizations and specific populations. He provides consultation and training in areas ranging from cultural competency and organizational development to conference planning, writing, and editing. Jim is President of Ryan Training & Consultation and he provides services to school systems, organizations, businesses and other groups throughout the United States.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Discuss the factors behind the increase in opiate/opioid abuse and addiction
- Recognize the relationship between the legitimate use of pain medications and the illegal use of those medications, heroin, and other opiates/opioids
- Improve capacity to prevent opioid/opiate use problems with older adults
- Increase knowledge of resources for treatment and recovery from opiate/opioid use disorders
